Christmas 2012

For Christmas this year, I wanted to give you something really special; so instead of buying you a gift you may not need, I've made a donation to the charity RIPPLE Africa in your honour!

Because of you, people from rural communities in Malawi will be able to benefit from the many wonderful projects that RIPPLE Africa delivers. These projects include:

- Education: Running and assisting eight pre-schools, five primary schools, one secondary school, a community library, and a secondary school bursary scheme.
- Environment: Tree planting, fuel-efficient cookstoves, forest conservation, and fish conservation.
- Health: Assisting the Mwaya Dispensary health facility, and running a disabilities and rehabilitation project.

RIPPLE Africa helps thousands of people to access opportunities in education, healthcare, and the environment which simply wouldn't be available without RIPPLE Africa's great work. Further, the charity receives no grants from the government, so all these projects are only possible thanks to donations made by people who want to make a difference.

I hope it brings you happiness to know that a small part of this charity's work will be done in your honour this Christmas.

Merry Christmas!
